

SIN Strategic Plan December 2020 to December 2025

SIN Organisational Objectives	Strategic Goals Dec 2020 – Dec 2025	Strategic Priorities Reviewed Dec 2023
f) To build strength, capacity and a sense of community among South Australian sex workers.	Strong connections and new engagements with sex workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Increase the diversity of sex workers that SIN engage with. - Maintain and improve online and physical sex worker only spaces. - Promote awareness of SIN services amongst sex workers across all sectors of the industry.
a) To promote the health, rights and wellbeing of sex workers in South Australia c) To provide education and support services that empower sex workers to live and work with dignity and in safety.	Accessible and relevant services for sex workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Provide sex workers with reliable and relevant information and resources. - Provision of peer support services that meet the needs of sex workers. - Ensure SIN and its staff are competent and approachable. - Engage with sex workers using current and emerging technologies.
b) To advocate for laws, practices and policies that optimise the health, welfare and safety of sex workers. d) To address the societal stigma and discrimination of sex workers. e) To be an effective, representational voice for sex workers in South Australia. g) To provide education to the broader community and raise awareness about sex work and issues affecting sex workers. h) To work collaboratively and congruently with the global sex worker rights movement	Effective advocacy on behalf of sex workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Advocate for sex workers industrial rights and against stigma, discrimination and criminalisation. - Promote decriminalisation as best practice sex industry regulation. - Support human rights and social justice causes that intersect with sex worker rights. - Raise the profile of sex workers. - Work with national and international sex worker groups and organisations.
i) To be focused on and driven by the needs, aspirations, concerns and issues of the diversity of South Australian sex workers.	Financially sustainable and accountable to sex workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Secure diverse funding streams. - Ensure community engagement informs our work. - Communicate governance and management activities to members. - Practices are transparent and regularly reviewed by community.